

FIRE DESTROYS LUMBER PLANT

Sparks Ignite Mattress Manufactory in Another Part of Town.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
PETERSBURG, Va., June 6.—A fire this afternoon destroyed the Appomattox Lumber and Box Company's plant, with a considerable quantity of lumber and four lumber loaded cars on a Norfolk and Western Railroad siding, near the factory, which was situated between the wharves and the Norfolk and Western tracks. Sparks from this fire, borne by a brisk breeze, ignited the roof of C. C. Luchenburg's small frame mattress-making establishment, on Bollingbrook Street, in Highland, necessitating a second alarm. This building was quite a distance from the first fire, and was practically destroyed when the engine arrived. The firemen were seriously impeded in their work by the bursting of hose.

Mr. C. Fisher Collier, secretary and treasurer of the Appomattox Company, said this evening that he could not yet reckon the loss or the amount of insurance. It is understood that the machinery was insured for fifteen hundred dollars. Mr. Collier said that the fire started behind the engine room while the factory hands were at dinner, but its cause had not been learned.

The company proposes to rebuild its plant on the southern side of the Norfolk and Western tracks.

STREET IMPROVEMENT BONDS.
The City Council passed an ordinance this evening providing for an issue of four per cent. forty-year bonds for seventy-five thousand dollars for the extension of sewers and water mains and improvement of sidewalks. The greater part of this amount is to be spent on the water main and sewer work.

The Deflection Committee presented the proposed contract between the city and the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad Company in the matter of diverting the channel of the Appomattox River, which will necessitate a railroad bridge over the new channel, and other important changes in the company's line of track across the Appomattox through the village of Pocahontas. The contract, which is an extremely bulky document, was referred to the Finance Committee.

A special adjourned meeting of the Council will be held Thursday, to consider this contract and the tax ordinance. Reports from the city auditor and treasurer indicate that the city's receipts during May exceeded the expenditures by more than seventy-five hundred dollars.

ART EXHIBITION.
An extensive and beautiful art display in china painting, oils and charcoal sketches, now on exhibition at the Petersburg School of Art, is attracting much attention. "Meditation," an oil painting by Miss Anna M. Dunlop, principal of the school, is perhaps the most noteworthy exhibit, representing an old peasant seated and leaning forward, with his head resting on his hand, a most humanly reminiscent gaze upon his face, was painted from life, while the artist was in Paris, where it was exhibited at the Louvre, and was highly commended by French artists. The work is doubtless one of the finest oils south of the Walters Gallery in Baltimore, but seems comparatively "unknown to fame" in this part of the world.

The Richmond "Evening Journal" made its initial appearance in Petersburg this afternoon, a large number of specimen copies being distributed by the local agency, which is conducted by C. S. Edmunds.

It is understood that Mr. E. P. Goodwyn, a well known broker of this city, has sold his yacht, "Lady Evelyn," to Dr. Lee Robinson, of Newport News. Mr. James W. Cocke will be arraigned in the Mayor's Court to-morrow morning on a charge of grand larceny. Cocke is accused of taking nearly five dollars from the safe in W. E. Brown's drug store on the night of a fire in the store several weeks ago. The case has attracted great attention, and has been twice continued. The prisoner is represented by William B. McIlwaine.

ANNUAL REPORT.
Secretary of the Commonwealth D. Q. Eggleston has issued his annual report for the fiscal year ending June 30th, 1904, and it is a most interesting document, containing 228 pages and in full of valuable information. It gives a complete list of all the State and county officers, together with the names of the Governors of the State from 1901 down to the present are given, and a list of members of Congress from Virginia since the foundation of the republic.

There is also a list of all the charters and amendments granted by the State, Commonwealth and Congress during the year. This information will be valuable to the public.

HOW TO FIND OUT.

Fill a bottle or common glass with your water and let it stand twenty-four hours; a sediment or settling indicates an unhealthy condition of the kidneys; if it stains the linen it is evidence of kidney trouble; too frequent desire to pass it, or pain in the back is also convincing proof that the kidneys and bladder are out of order.

What To Do.
There is a common knowledge so often expressed that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy, fulfills every wish in curing rheumatism, pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passage. It corrects inability to hold water, and scalding pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often during the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. If you need a medicine you should have the best. Sold by druggists in fifty-cent and dollar sizes.

You may have a sample bottle of Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy, and a book that tells all about it, both sent absolutely free by mail. Address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing be sure to mention that you read this generous offer in the Richmond Daily Times-Dispatch. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

PLAIN TALK OF COL. CUTSHAW

tainly told the committee what his views were last night without the slightest reserve.

He concluded by saying that he would, of course, bow to the will of the committee, but he desired to know once for all what was to be the policy.

Messrs. Ferguson and Funston favored living up to the present contract with Mr. Sloan, but they and the committee, by resolution, declared that hereafter no sand would be sold to any one by the city.

The committee disposed of some other business, but it was all of a routine nature.

The intruders were fired upon at the home of Mr. Guffy, and were frightened away, at all other places after bedrooms had been entered.

APPLY FOR PRISONERS.

Authorities of Prince William Wain Gallagher and Others.

The authorities of Prince William county have made formal application to the district court for the district of Virginia for the surrender to them of James Gallagher, Edward Fitzpatrick and the other two Federal prisoners, now held in the district of Columbia, by the United States authorities. The quartette are charged with robbing the bank of Manassas and stealing therefrom stamps belonging to the Government. While no official statement is to be had to that effect, it is practically certain that the United States officials will deliver the prisoners to the State authorities. Under the Federal statutes the accused upon conviction could only be given five years as a maximum term, while under the laws of this State they would be liable upon conviction to a term of eighteen years.

These men were rounded up in Baltimore by police and Federal agents last winter along with a large number of suspected yeagmen or safe crackers, and were delivered to the Federal authorities by the Baltimore police, charged with the Manassas crime. It is said that considerable evidence against them has been secured by postoffice inspectors, who will probably be summoned to testify for the State in the event the prisoners are delivered to the Prince William authorities.

Children Will Entertain.

A children's entertainment will be given at St. Mary's Hall this evening from 4 to 6 o'clock, and an interesting program will be presented. Some young ladies will appear in a skirt dance. The ladies earnestly urge the parents to send their children and help so worthy a cause in the Home for Needy Confederate Women.

Your Nerves need "toning up" in the Spring

When you over-work, your nerves are overworked. Then you "live on your nerves." You can "live on your nerves" only just so long—then comes the nervous breakdown. Nervous breakdown is the protest of tired nerves against over-work. You need new power for your nerves. Paine's Celery Compound gives you just the strength you need by feeding new power to your nerves. It builds your nerves back to healthy strength. For 18 years, Paine's Celery Compound has been the one great accepted tonic for the nerves, and it is used more universally than any other tonic in the world. Paine's Celery Compound is the prescription of one of the most famous physicians in the annals of American medicine—Prof. E. E. Phelps, of Dartmouth University. Its formula has been sent to every registered physician in the United States, and it is constantly prescribed by them.

Got Back the Old Vigor
Feb. 1, 1904, Osterburg, Pa.—"I owe you an apology for not replying sooner to your inquiry. I wish to say that Paine's Celery Compound still holds a high place in my esteem. And why shouldn't it? In the summer of 1892, when I was reduced to a state of collapse and despair—total physical wreck, I began using Paine's Celery Compound. Before I used one bottle of it I felt much better, and after using a few bottles I was entirely restored. Since then my health has been better than ever before. We always keep it on hand in the family and when anyone feels bad from any cause, a dose or two usually fixes us all up again. I firmly believe that no better medicine was ever made for nervousness, indigestion, derangement of the liver, rheumatism, loss of appetite, sleeplessness. I usually use a bottle each spring as a tonic. We think it has saved us many dollars in doctors' bills, as we have only called in a physician once or twice in the last eight or ten years. If people generally only knew the real value of it as a medicine, more of it would be used."—Mrs. George W. Oster, Osterburg, Penna.

Try one bottle—see how much better you feel

PAINE'S CELERY COMPOUND

The celebrated nerve vitalizer and tonic.

If you ask a druggist for a bottle of Paine's Celery Compound and he sells you a counterfeit and an imitation and tells you it is just as good or better, he is trying to deceive you. He is trying to substitute an unknown article for a known product because he will make a few cents more out of your innocence. In his mind the question of real merit does not enter into the transaction—but the question of a few cents does.

When you ask for Paine's Celery Compound see that you get the real Paine's Celery Compound, with the picture of the bunch of celery on the bottle.

BOYS DIE UNDER BURNING BRUSH

(By Associated Press.)
ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., June 6.—The bodies of two boys, who met a horrible death by cremation on the beach this afternoon, have been identified as those of Order J. Delaney and William Jeffries, both of this city, aged seven and five, respectively. The two boys were inseparable companions. They had gone to a brush heap of pine trees on the beach front at New Hampshire Avenue, which trees were to be used to build a jetty. They dug a hole beneath the pile and crawled under it. It is believed they had matches, for soon the brush was ablaze, and before the boys could crawl out they were cremated. The charred bodies were scarcely recognizable. Firemen, who responded to put out the blaze, did not know the boys were under the brush until a houseman lifted one end of the brush to get a stream of water under it. He then saw the two burned bodies side by side.

Little Sadie Talley was seriously and painfully injured Monday evening by being kicked in the face by a horse that was at large. The little girl passed the animal and struck at him with a switch, when without a moment's warning he kicked her. It is said both the upper and lower jaws of the child were broken. The little girl is suffering excruciating pain from the injury.

Bright's Disease and Diabetes News.

Pacific Coast Blount Co., R. C. Pell, Manager, San Francisco, May 30, 1905.

To the parents of children having Bright's Disease:

I feel impelled to write you my personal experience with this disease, the gravity of which I feel strongly through the death of my father some twenty years ago from that trouble and the serious illness of my son when he was pronounced by two physicians to have Bright's Disease, with recovery impossible. His whole body was swollen with the Dropsy, and death at any moment would not have surprised us. We put him on Fulsom's Compound for Bright's Disease, in six months his recovery was complete. Hearing that the son of a friend (an attorney) was dying of Bright's Disease, I told him, and at last reports the boy had recovered. Last year a Mr. Ruch, of New York, doing business with us, showed me Bright's Disease. I told him, too, of my boy's case. Eight months later I hardly knew him. He was nearly well. There are lives to be saved and it is my duty as well as my pleasure to lay these facts before you.

Yours, etc., R. C. PELL.

When to suspect Bright's Disease—weakness or loss of weight; puffy ankles, hands or eyelids; kidney trouble after the third month; urine may show sediment; falling vision; drowsiness. One of these.

SECRETARY DENIES FRAUD ALLEGATION

(By Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, June 6.—At the conclusion of the cabinet meeting to-day, Secretary Wilson said his attention had been called to the charges of the Southern Cotton Association, that there had been a "leak" in the information gathered by the Agricultural Department concerning the cotton crop. He characterized the charges as ridiculous. It was possible, he said, that somebody connected with the department had been pretending to have knowledge of the cotton figures of the department, but as a matter of fact, it was practically impossible for anybody to obtain advance information of any value.

AGENTS CELEBRATE THE ANNIVERSARY

With rousing good cheer fifty agents of the Metropolitan Insurance Company celebrated the first anniversary of Superintendent George W. Bahkile, at his home on Chestnut Hill last night. The increasing business of the company made it necessary, a year ago to divide the city into two districts and it was at that time Mr. Bahkile took charge. Although in a new territory, he immediately gained the favor of his agents and there has been a steady and constant increase in their number. And in appreciation of this effort Mr. Bahkile invited them to his home to celebrate the occasion.

Quite an Interesting Incident of the Evening.

The popularity was attested by the presence of nearly every man. Quite an interesting incident of the evening was a request from Mr. Bahkile's former superintendency, now in Springfield, Mass., asking the appointment of a delegate to represent him—somebody to smoke, eat and make a speech.

The speaker announced that he was in charge of the United States Arsenal, in Washington, at the time and personally supervised the digging of Booth's grave and saw him buried.

Very good feeling all around the party. The speaker announced that he was in charge of the United States Arsenal, in Washington, at the time and personally supervised the digging of Booth's grave and saw him buried.

(By Associated Press.)

THE SUPREME COURT IN SUMMER SESSION

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
WYTHEVILLE, Va., June 6.—The Supreme Court of Appeals convened here to-day. Judges J. C. Buchanan, Buchanan, Harrison and Whittle, the full court, being present. The docket, Eureka Club vs. Perkins, was dismissed for failure to pay for printing. Edward Lyle, receiver vs. A. E. Harvey, receiver of the Corporation Court of Roanoke city. Argued by J. M. Hart and J. D. Smith for appellant, and by A. E. Harvey for appellee. The case was submitted to the full court for decision.

Next cases to be called: Norfolk and Western Railway Company vs. Spencer's administratrix, from the Corporation Court of Roanoke, and Richardson vs. Spencer and Hughes, from the Circuit Court of Roanoke.

The court also disposed of the following petitions: Doubledie's administratrix vs. Doubledie, from the Circuit Court of Roanoke, and a writ of error allowed. Grant Doubledie, a laborer, engaged in quarrying stone, to be used in the improvement of the streets of Harrisonburg, was killed by an explosion of dynamite, alleged to have been due to the negligence of the city. A demurrer to the declaration was sustained, which judgment is now affirmed.

An appeal and supersedeas was granted in the case of Wasserman vs. Metzger, from the Law and Chancery Court of the city of Norfolk.

This case was reversed in June, 1904, by the Supreme Court, and the case remanded for the purpose of having the National Bank of Commerce, of Norfolk, make a party defendant. This was done, and at the second hearing, the court being of opinion that certain deeds under which Richard Wasserman and her trustee, Dr. Kalbarner, claim title to property in the city of Norfolk, were null and void, as against Sophia Metzger, plaintiff, and that Sophia Metzger has a valid and subsisting lien on the property for $335.34, with interest thereon, and the same was awarded to her within thirty days or the land be sold. From this decree an appeal and supersedeas is now awarded.

In Spencer vs. Brittain's administratrix, from the Circuit Court of Lee county, an appeal and supersedeas was allowed. This case is a claim against the estate of Chadwell Brittain, which the lower court held to be barred by the statute of limitation.

An appeal and a writ of error was refused in the respective cases of Eager vs. Louisville and Nashville Railroad Company, and the same was affirmed at law. The controversy in these cases was over a strip of 100 feet in width and depth, situated in Lee county, over which the Louisville and Nashville had laid its track, and the refusal of the petitioners to remove the same.

A writ of error was also refused in the case of F. T. Blanchard Company vs. Caldwell's company, from the Circuit Court of Lee county.

The Caldwell-Sitts Company brought an action in detinue to recover for a lot of textbooks, destroyed by fire in the public schools of Tennessee. The jury rendered a verdict in favor of the plaintiff for $500. A motion for a new trial was refused, and the case was affirmed.

In Harrison vs. Danville and Western Railway Company, from the Circuit Court of Henry county, a condemnation proceeding to condemn land for its use near the Martinsville depot, a writ of error was refused.

In the case of Leo Brown vs. city of Norfolk, from the Circuit Court of the city of Norfolk, a writ of error was refused. Brown was fined $5 for failure to obtain a license for hiring a one-horse delivery wagon, as required by an ordinance of the city of Norfolk. The ordinance was claimed by his counsel to be unconstitutional.
